(U) Bulgaria – Policeman Shot Dead Patrolling Turkish Border for Migrants

(U) Golyam Dervent – A Bulgarian guard has been killed on the border with Turkey after his patrol was shot by suspected migrant traffickers. The border has become increasingly popular with migrants trying to cross into the European Union. After spotting a hole in the fence that had been breached, the police officer was struck by gunfire fired from Turkish territory. Bulgarian officials said migrant traffickers were behind the shooting. Turkish authorities later arrested a suspect and an alleged accomplice. Neither of the suspects are believed to be Turkish. Bulgaria has become a prime route for people trying to reach the EU from the Middle East and Afghanistan with more than 12K migrants apprehended in the first nine months of 2022, double last year’s numbers. The number of attempted border crossings also doubled to 80k in the first eight months of the year.
